

Privacy Policy

Ava Women's Center is committed to respecting your privacy and ensuring the security of any personal information you provide while interacting with our website. We do not rent, sell, or lease your confidential information. However, there may be legal circumstances that require the sharing of such information. We strive to protect any information you provide and aim to make your experience safe and enjoyable.

Policy & Terms

INFORMATION COLLECTION AND USE

Ava Women's Center collects certain information from our website users and is the sole owner of this information. We will not rent, sell, or lease your confidential information, except as legally required. We may share information with our affiliates, partners, or contracted organizations when necessary. We ensure the security of any information you provide and will not collect personal information without your knowledge during your visit to our website. Any requested information will typically relate directly to the services you are seeking.

USER REGISTRATION FOR ONLINE DONATIONS, PURCHASES, AND PUBLICATIONS

To access certain parts of our website, you may be asked to complete a profile information form, providing contact details (such as name, address, and email address) and/or financial information (such as credit card details). We use this information to offer specific website services, including facilitating online donations and resource purchases, maintaining supporter and donor lists, compiling statistics, and providing you with Ava Women's Center publications and other information, education, and services. Financial information is used solely to process donations.

COOKIES

A "cookie" is a small piece of data that a website can store on your computer. Ava Women's Center uses cookies to enhance your online experience, facilitate donations, and manage online purchases. We use both session cookies and persistent cookies. Persistent cookies are stored on your hard drive for an extended period and can be removed by following your internet browser's help file directions. Your browser may notify you when a cookie is sent to your system, allowing you to accept or refuse it. Our website uses cookies to interact with our online bookstore and manage personal website accounts. These cookies identify you as a registered user, enabling access to your site information, subscription to publications, and submission of donations, purchases, and other transactions. We do not use cookies to track your activities on our website.

LOG FILES

Ava Women's Center uses log files, a common practice among standard websites, to enhance your experience, administer the website, and maintain statistics on website usage.

COMMUNICATION FROM US

If you provide us with your contact information, we may send you communications regarding our services, events, or updates that may be of interest to you. You have the option to opt-out of these communications at any time by following the unsubscribe instructions provided in the email or by contacting us directly.

THIRD PARTIES ASSISTANCE FOR USER PURCHASES AND DONATIONS

We may engage reputable third-party service providers to assist in processing donations and purchases. These providers are contractually obligated to protect your information and are prohibited from using your personal data for any other purpose.

LINKS

Our website may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that Ava Women's Center is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information.

POSTINGS AND PUBLIC FORUMS

Any information you disclose in public areas of our website, such as forums or message boards, becomes public information. Please exercise caution when disclosing personal information in these areas.

SECURITY

We take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or unauthorized alteration, disclosure, or destruction of data. These include internal reviews of our data collection, storage, and processing practices, as well as physical security measures to guard against unauthorized access to systems where we store personal data.
